

SPINAL DECOMPRESSION THERAPY

— Just the Facts You Have Always Wanted to Know —

Eric A. Shearer, D.C., F.I.A.M.A., L.C.P.

You've probably seen the newspaper ads that "hype" Spinal Decompression Therapy asking you to call some unknown doctor's office in order to receive a free report in the mail. We do not believe anyone should have to do that.

Our website at PTCdisc.com will give you the complete facts about Spinal Decompression Therapy including several clinical trials that reported the treatment to be highly effective.

In addition, our PTCdisc.com website has answers to the following Frequently Asked Questions about Spinal Decompression Therapy:

- Who can benefit from this treatment and what conditions can be treated?
- Are the treatments painless and how long does each session take?
- How does the spinal decompression therapy system affect a spinal disc?
- Who is NOT a candidate for Spinal Decompression Therapy?
- Do patients also receive therapy and rehabilitative exercises?

At PTCdisc.com, we also discuss the approximate total treatment cost based on our low $75 per session fee. We decided to give that information because our motto is "Quality Care With Integrity" and by being 100% candid, you will be better able to make an informed decision about your treatment options. Plus, our total fee for Spinal Decompression Therapy is a very small fraction of the $4,000.00 amount that other doctors are charging.

At PTCdisc.com you will also learn that our Kennedy decompression system is the most advanced unit in the world. No doctor or clinic – and we do mean no one – has a more sophisticated and technologically advanced spinal decompression system.

If you are suffering with a herniated disc in your neck or low back – or know someone who is – then Spinal Decompression Therapy should definitely be considered.
